

Colony Family Offices Announces Sponsorship of ACTEC Southeast Regional Meeting

Greenville, South Carolina - November 7, 2019 – Colony Family Offices is pleased to announce that it is a Bronze Sponsor of the 2019 Southeast Regional Meeting of The American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC) <https://www.actec.org/>. The conference will be held November 7-10, 2019 at The Westin Poinsett.

Colony's mission is to provide financial peace of mind to individuals, entrepreneurs, and multigenerational families by simplifying the complexity of wealth. Since its founding in 2013, Colony has been an advocate of collaborative relationships with our family's attorneys, accountants, and other professional advisors. We believe open dialogue and a diversity of opinion can help identify the best solution for our mutual clients. Collaborating with Colony gives professional advisors access to a highly skilled and experienced team of financial professionals. We have the knowledge, discretion, and commitment to build lasting relationships.

"We believe that affluent families are increasingly interested in partnering with an independent firm whose interests align with that of its clients and who invest side-by-side with them," Eric D. Ridenour, Managing Partner at Colony Family Offices said. "We hope to continue expanding our client base by delivering truly custom financial solutions in an unrivaled manner to our families."

This four day conference consists of a series of lecture sessions and panel discussions designed to examine in detail current developments in the estate and gift tax field; strengthen the practitioner's knowledge and application of estate planning techniques to a multitude of diverse and complex problems; and to provide a forum for the discussion of important estate planning problems and their solutions.

About the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel

Established in 1949, The American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC) is a national organization of approximately 2,500 lawyers, peer-elected to membership by demonstrating the highest level of integrity, commitment to the profession, competence and experience as a trust and estate counselor. The members, “Fellows,” are the best and brightest in trust and estate practice, with decades experience representing and advising families. ACTEC offers technical comments about the law and its effective administration but does not take positions on matters of policy or political objectives.
